

The South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) is a state cabinet agency committed to serving South Carolina's youth offenders. DJJ is responsible for providing custodial care and rehabilitation for the state's children who are incarcerated, on probation or parole, or in community placement for a criminal or status offense. DJJ also provides a variety of prevention and intervention programs for at-risk youth.

JUVENILE CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS

are a vital part of our agency and mission. The safety and security of our youth and staff within our secure facilities is our top priority, and that starts with our officers. Our JCOs work within our facilities to provide a safe, secure environment and help facilitate access to programming, education, recreation and other services for youth offenders.
